Welcome to the Salad Kingdom, where all fruits and vegetables live happily and peacefully. In downtown Saladoria by the great statue of Sir Cucumber, an old man named Percy tells a legendary tale of long, long ago.

"Our peaceful Salad Kingdom was once plagued by a terrible war, a life or death struggle between ourselves and the Farmies, who only wanted to buy, sell, and eat us!"

Fortunately, good King Broccoli had the wisdom to protect and preserve the Salad Kingdom. King Broccoli abolished all segregation, so that everyone could live in justice and equality. He was respected and honored by each of his grateful subjects.

Except one! Minister Pumpkin and his power-hungry clan didn't approve of King Broccoli's rule. "Why should we pumpkins live on the same miserable level as the carrots and bell peppers? This means war!" declared Minister Pumpkin.

Soon afterwards, Minister Pumpkin built a grand castle, which he named for himself, at the foot of the Zucchini Mountains. He then established a new social order, with pumpkins lordling it over everyone else! Under his powerful army and a cruel tax law, our innocent citizens suffered. To top it off, he united with the dreaded Farmies and tossed anyone in jail who refused to obey his decrees.

Old King Broccoli and his daughter, Princess Tomato, formed an armed resistance in hopes of toppling Minister Pumpkin.

But Princess Tomato herself was kidnapped and confined to Minister Pumpkin's castle. Shortly thereafter, the poor King, stricken with grief, passed away. His subjects mourned their loss and prayed for the safe return of their beloved princess.

Yet, to everyone's dismay, Minister Pumpkin announced the engagement of Princess Tomato to his own son!

With the wedding day fast approaching, the noble Sir Cucumber returned to the Salad Kingdom, only to learn of this horrible turn of events.

This, then, is the story of the Sir Cucumber and his heroic quest for justice with a young persimmon named Percy . . ."

HOW TO PLAY

In Princess Tomato in the Salad Kingdom, you play the role of Sir Cucumber who begins an adventurous journey. You must gather information and items in order to rescue Princess Tomato. Please keep the following in mind:

1) Listen carefully to what people say. If you speak to the same person many times, he/she will sometimes remember what they had forgotten to tell you.
2) "LOOK" and "CHECK" very thoroughly. Go back to previous places. You might find something new.
3) Some hints might not make sense. But jot them down for later use. They will definitely come in handy.
4) Try out all the commands at one place. You'll be surprised what unexpected information you might gain.
5) Don't forget to "TAKE" items. All items can be "TAKEN", not just those given you.
6) Percy sometimes drops items accidentally. Be sure to check your items from time to time.
Throughout this game you will face many opponents, one by one, in a duel challenge called "FINGER WARS". A number of faces will display at the bottom of your screen. The face will disappear every time you win a match and gain a face when you lose. There are two stages to this battle:

STAGE I

On a count of three, choose one of the following forms by pressing the designated area on the movement control pad:

- a) UP or DOWN /Stone (a) beats (b)
- b) LEFT /Scissors (b) beats (c)
- c) RIGHT /Paper (c) beats (a)

The opponent's hand will be displayed on the screen, changing from Stone to Scissors to Paper at high speed. When you choose one, it will stop simultaneously. If it's a tie, repeat Stage I. Otherwise proceed to Stage II.

STAGE II

On a count of "try to... look... away," choose one of the following forms by pressing the designated area on the movement control pad:

- a) UP Look Upwards/Point Upwards
- b) RIGHT Look To The Right/Point To The Right
- c) DOWN Look Downwards/Point To The Left
- d) LEFT Look To The Left/Point To The Left

If you won in Stage I, you want to point in the same direction that your opponent's head is turned.

If you lost in Stage I, you want to look away from the direction in which your opponent is pointing.

The opponent's head or finger will rotate up, right, down, and left at high speed. When you press the one you choose, your opponent will stop simultaneously.
